

Centennial of the OKLAHOMA STATE GAME WARDEN

In celebration of a century of service to the great state of Oklahoma, this book commemorates the service of the men and women who have served as Oklahoma State Game Wardens throughout the past 100 years. Sponsored by the Oklahoma State Game Warden Association, this book honors the officers who have committed years of dedicated effort restoring, and conserving our state's wildlife resources and for the service and protection of it's citizens. Their sacrifices should never be forgotten.

This 8.5" x 11" volume is produced in a high quality, padded, hardcover and available in a limited edition featuring 128 pages of game warden history complimented with remarkable photographs.

To facilitate the financing of this worthy project, the Oklahoma State Game Warden Association requests your support by ordering your own special copy of this very unique book.
